“Helium: Decentralizing Networks”

Special 30 min Keynote Presentation by Nova Labs, Inc.

Scott Kaplan
Business Development Manager
Nova Labs, Inc.

Description: Scott Kaplan will share an in-depth look at Helium, from its start in August 2019 to the massive growth that is being seen today. With two current network telecom protocols, LoRaWAN and 5G, Helium allows people and companies large and small to take control of their network infrastructure and rewards them to do so.
